

2019 International Tax Law Summer Class 国际税法暑期班

Dialogue with Master of International Tax

China is advancing the construction of the “Belt and Road”, overseas investments and foreign investments are at their booming time. Under this background, it is significant to establish and maintain a fair international tax law order and strengthen international tax cooperation between China and other countries, especially those along the Belt and Road.

To cultivate professionals in international taxation, WTS has sponsored a summer class in international taxation, which is marking its sixth anniversary, and will be lectured by Vienna University and Xiamen University professors. The summer class welcomes the following applicants: Young teachers, graduate students, outstanding undergraduates in law and finance colleges and universities, and finance and taxation professionals from corporations all over the country (including Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macao).

Registration Date	: Before 6:00 p.m. on 7 July 2019
Lecture Period	: From 8 – 12 July 2019
Lecture Location	: Xiamen University
Language	: English
Surprise	: WTS sponsors a three-month study seat at Vienna University to the student achieving the best test score
