

Internship Experience

— Charles Zhou

After the internship, I have a clearer insight into what I want to do and what skills I need to work on to prepare for the future.”

First, I want to say thank you for providing me this opportunity. During these three-month internship, I had the chance to observe many aspects of tax such as transfer pricing documentation (TPD), filings and tax research. The trainings shared by colleagues have helped me understand specific issues in the industry. The English Session has improved my English in both reading and

In addition, colleagues here are professional and gentle. They always guild me and share with me their working tips with inspiration and patience.

It is definitely a valuable experience to me.
