

WTS co-hosts tax class with Xiamen University

wtsChina

2022 summer tax class

The annual six-day summer tax class co-hosted by WTS and Xiamen University has come to a fruitful conclusion on 23 July 2022. WTS China's managing partner, Martin Ng, was invited to deliver the inauguration speech and a lecture on international taxation, joined by other honourable lecturers, including Mr. Zhang Zhiyong, former duty director of State Taxation Administration (STA) of China and now the director of International Taxation Research Institute, and other lecturers from the International Taxation Centre of Vienna University, Austria.

The tax class was hosted by Professor Zhu Yansheng, the deputy dean of the School of Law, Xiamen University. The lecturers from Vienna University included Ms. Theres Neumüller, Ms. Yasmin Lawson and Mr. Philipp Scharizer.

Mr. Martin Ng in lecture

Class in full progress

#

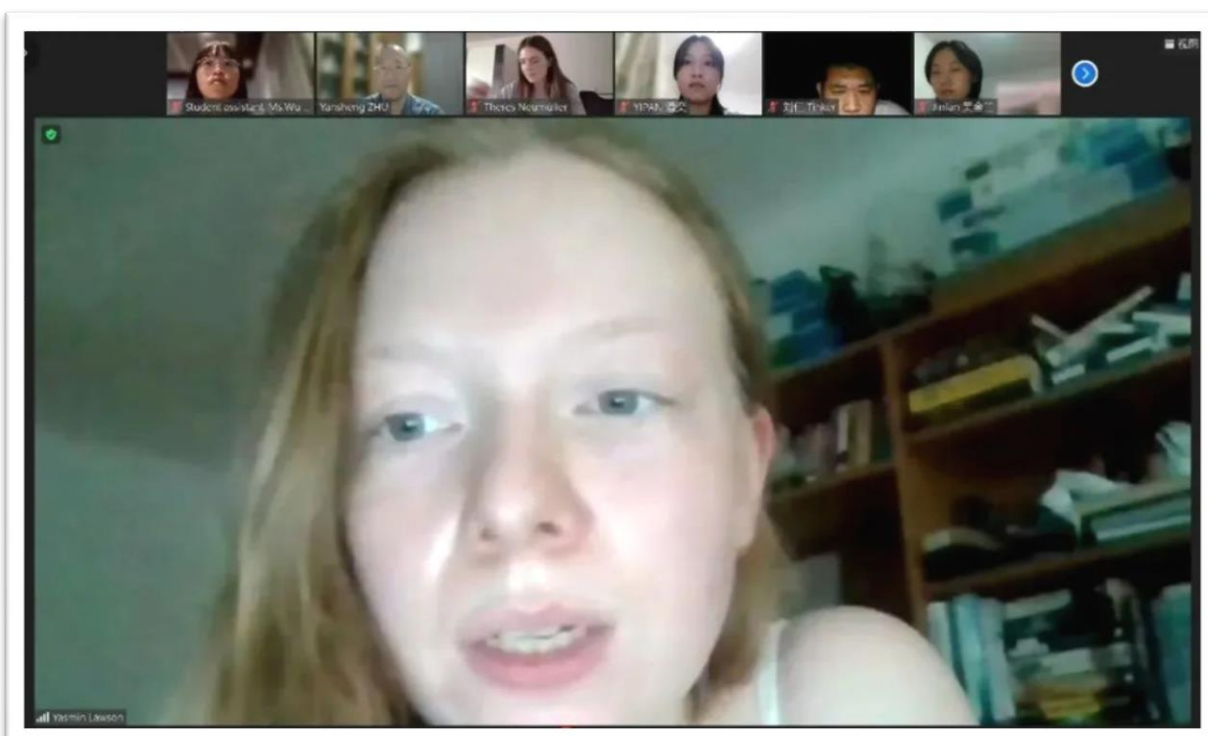

(Ms. Theres Neumüller lecturing)

Ms. Neumüller introduced the structure, the syllabus and the assignment requirements of the program, and also took questions from the attendees.

#

(Ms. Yasmin Lawson lecturing)

Ms. Lawson expressed her joy and congratulation on the successful conclusion of the summer program. She was especially impressed by the active participation and the “big conceptual jump” during the course of the program.

(Class in full attention)

(Professor Zhu Yanshen hosting the class)

Professor Zhu expressed his gratitude to WTS and the Vienna University for the long-term support to the program and for bringing practical insights to the study. Students were also encouraged to continue their further study and practices in international taxation.

Previous Articles

WTS Customs Newsletter

WTS Financial Services Infoletter

Overview of the VAT System in China

Assignments to Asia Pacific

Follow Us