

Internship Report: Tax Consultancy Internship Work Experience

Internship Background

I joined WTS from 4th September to 27th October 2023 in the Tax Consulting department. This internship provided me with an opportunity to gain an in-depth understanding of the tax consulting field, and at the same time, I learnt a lot of practical and professional skills.

Internship Work

Searching for information: In the initial stage of the internship, my main task was to assist the team in searching for information. At this stage, I learnt how to effectively use WK software and tax regulations to deal with problems.

TP translation: As the internship progressed, I started to work on TP translations and was involved in translating TP documents for companies such as Kurtz, Leoni and Azelis.

Tax Regulation Research: Regulations in the tax area change frequently, so during my internship I was required to constantly research the latest tax regulations and policy changes to ensure that our advice was based on the most up-to-date information. This also honed my research and analytical skills.

Internship Gains

Expertise: This internship provided me with an in-depth understanding of expertise in the tax field, including tax planning, tax regulations and client services. I not only improved my accounting skills, but also learnt how to apply theoretical knowledge to practical work.

Communication skills: The experience of working with a team has improved my communication and teamwork skills. I learnt how to clearly express complex tax concepts.

Problem solving skills: The field of tax consulting often involves complex issues and I learned how to analyse problems, propose solutions and complete tasks within a certain time frame. This honed my problem-solving skills.

Career development: This internship opened the door to my future career. I realised the importance of the field of tax consultancy and confirmed my desire to build a career in this field.

Summary

This tax consulting internship was an important experience in my career. Through this internship, I have not only learnt a lot of professional knowledge and skills, but also improved my overall quality. I am well aware that I still have a lot to learn and grow, but I am full of confidence in the future, and I believe that this internship experience will have a far-reaching impact on my career development. I will continue to accumulate experience and improve myself to provide better tax consulting services to my clients.

Finally, I would like to thank my leaders and colleagues who have given me a lot of guidance and support throughout the internship. I would also like to thank the company for providing me with this rare internship opportunity, which I will always bear in mind.
