

Recap | Seminar on Globalization and HR

23 July 2024

With increasing globalization, geo-economics fragmentation, and more overseas employment dispatches, it calls for considerations on how to calibrate and coordinate HR and tax plans.

Against this backdrop, WTS China ran a seasoned seminar with HR specialists, GoGlobal and Hays, on the topic of “Latest Trends in Globalization and Human Resources” on 18 July 2024 in Shanghai.

This seminar was joined by forty corporate representatives who look to explore the trends in investment globalization and global mobility.

Ms. Ened Du, partner, and Ms. Sissi Shen, manager of WTS China spoke on tax matters and joined by two speakers from GoGlobal and Hays.

The seminar has discussed a variety of subjects, which include the following topics:

- Overseas employment guide – overview of southeast Asia and eastern Europe;
- Employment compliance and case sharing of Chinese enterprises expanding into ASEAN and EU;
- Taxation on going global.
